Dear Wally:

I very much appreciate your note of January 14 and want you to know that there are a great many of us around here who will miss seeing you in Washington as often as we have had the opportunity to do so in the past.

I hope that I will personally have the occasion to see you from time to time in the future and, in the meantime, my congratulations on the great skill with which you handled the [redacted] during our many long sessions.

Dear Allen -

I cannot let the
come to a final close without telling you what a great experience it has been for me to work with you. You have given me a lesson in responsibility, leadership and understanding of world affairs I shall never forget.

My warmest regards and good wishes -
